You can imagine, as well, that he has spent his entire career telling new and overconfident magicians not to do a particular thing, only to have them go and do it disappearing half their class or turning themselves into a miffin. Why would Elliot and Margo get into a carriage operated by fairies?

One of the worst movies I've seen this year, and I've seen some pretty bad ones, Holy crap, Alice, going to a vampire?!? The highlight of the film comes at the end with the ugliest cat fight in the history of cinema. In fact I don't even remember the second one that much except that it was horrible.

I love Eliot's family's reaction to 21st century America. I love artfully arranged is that the right word or should it be "artistically?"
