It is worth noting that in the West at least, in the mind of some philosophers homo biblicus is being replaced by homo laicus. The satisfaction gained from earlier relationships no longer satisfied. Traditional theology fails in establishing an appropriate interpretation of queer experience because of its inadequate classical epistemological principles.

Infra-humans, that is, non-human animals also act but their goal is set forth. Such an oppositional approach consisting of internal and external disputes is not totally unknown among philosophers and theologians. It is worth noting that in the West at least, in the mind of some philosophers homo biblicus is being replaced by homo laicus.

Existential interpretation in theology is a methodological enquiry which at the time of St Thomas, however, many religious philosophers and theologians were more interested in distinguishing the supernatural life of faith from the natural common life of day-to-day experience. Interesting and impassioned.
