Together, these seemingly juxtapose components are able to foster a deeper engagement – Serious Play known as a state of flow [24] where Serious Play lose track of time and their inner critique. For instance, while most of us were busy putting two to three bricks together in an attempt to build a model, Jonathon Lumpkin, a member of our Customer Support team, built an aerodynamic airplane in no time. Our focus is on creating business solutions, especially on the topics of collaboration. Because serious play is still an Serious Play field and used in various contexts, it is sometimes branded as or referred to by other names. Theory of constructionism explains that learning occurs through building external objects. CategoryBook.Tools To Show Your Appreciation.
