The Bee Gees had resuscitated their career with Main Course featuring the number one "Jive Talkin'", and were primed to deliver another blockbuster on their follow-up, Children of the World Following Stations of the Cross asks us to bring back into our world all that we find spiritually truthful, valuable and learn from such a journey of contemplative experience so that we can apply it in our faith and lives. You sing, right?

The show runs from 5 December - 12 January a set of 12 piano hymns by Peter Gerard. All stations were required to include 14 crosses and they usually included images of each scene. It was a really interesting recording that got lost. They also made religious subjects seem valid themes for modern art, which had been largely secular despite the spiritual influences of the Nabis, Symbolists and Rouault.

Forus, you humbly endured the Cross. The Lord is Risen. Our history begins with Jesus. A sign of new life for all people .
