Curiously, though, he is now signed to Blue Thumb, the very label to which his managers Charlie Greene and Brian Stone were attempting to sign him 25 years ago – even though the Trident sessions were being financed by Atlantic. It was taupe in a Technicolor age, organic not synthetic, inhabited by the ghosts of an America which predated sound recording. The book has a powerful style of its own and a story that might illuminate an entire period. BooksbyJohnNiven. Brand new Book. Niven works really hard to craft a tough guy protagonist who seems to be a kind of avatar for the guy writing the book. You must be logged in to vote.
