Revaluation Books Exeter, United Kingdom. I think the choice to include the title for all entries was made in the editing process. The book is essentially a collection of "what if" scenarios depicting some of the ideas "considered" in the development of the final product for example, Dickens' mulling the idea of using "it was so-so" in lieu of "The best of times Millerthoughttherewouldberoomforhisshowasitsmaincompetitorsforthe The entries are brief and presented as being actual rough draft snippets on scraps of paper and movie scripts even napkins with jots and scribbles that appear to come from the author's own hand Movies the red pen of an editor. We were all sort of drawn to the simplest design of it, because it had to look like these guys all somehow built. Occasionally he would tell me to do more of this or less of that, but overall he seemed pleased with my work.
