War heroes aren't usually called out of semi-retirement and sent to the far reaches of the galaxy for a routine investigation. There is great science fiction at work here - one of the best examples is Daley's description of the "proteus" that each person carries - a portable device similar to a wrist watch that provides data storage, computer communication, and functionality.

Now, for the shipmistress and her crew, a desperate voyage becomes a chilling in a series that does a great job of blending space opera with humour.
