Happyreading.Transilvania,Romania. I can definitely see myself reading more from. I am not a big fan of the Classics Why did no one tell me about this book? The actual content is a lot more mature and philosophical than I expected : view spoiler [as the introduction mentions : "There are not many children's books, even in our own time, that involve a female The Count of Monte Cristo (Elibron Classics) poisoner, two cases of infanticide, a stabbing and three suicides; an extended scene of torture and execution; drug-induced sexual fantasies, illegitimacy, transvestism and lesbianism; a display of the author's classical learning, and his knowledge of modern European history, the customs and diet of the Italians, the effects of hashish, and so on.
