Detroit - Darden, Joe T. After a riot, everyone goes home and sobers up. Groups large and small have been collaborating on projects for more than two years.

They also looted and destroyed white-owned property in their neighborhood.

and Richard W. Racial segregation in the United States Armed Forces was ongoing, and the response to the riots hurt morale in African-American units - most significantly the 25th Central Postal Directory, which mutinied against white officers and military police on June 24 in the Battle of Bamber Bridge.
